(SODB-24438)—The following letter was sent on 23 April by General Constantin Petre-Lazar, aide to King Mihai, to General Nicolae Radescu and Grigore Niculescu-Buzesti: . . . "Taking into consideration your nominal proposal of 6 April 1949, His Majesty the King gives his approval for the organization of the National Committee of Romanian Coordination, as you have proposed, that is: President: General Nicolae Radescu. . . His Majesty the King is very satisfied with the accord concluded between you gentlemen, an accord which brings to an end the sterile and dangerous disagreements, and which at the same time constitutes a solemn beginning of a productive and harmonious collaboration in the service of the greatest interests of the Romanian cause. His Majesty the King desires that all the members of the National Committee of Romanian Coordination to work with equal powers and responsibilities. . . for a program of national unity. . .

SODE-15913 — 1. Clandestine contact has been established with unidentified leaders of the National Peasant Party who are presently in prison. Some of these imprisoned leaders appear to be supplying advice for and direction to certain political activities of a clandestine character which are being carried on by some members of the National Peasant Party and others.

2. These imprisoned leaders have ordered that anti-Semitism among Rumanians must be curbed. They are said to be indifferent to the activities abroad of General Nicolae Radescu and to be annoyed at the address delivered before the meeting of the European Movement in Brussels by Grigore Gafencu. . .
